dukealumnitravels.com
Dear Duke Alumni and Friends:

Voyage the Aegean to the cradle of Western civilization and the classical world, exploring the legendary and mythical places of Ancient Greece. Cruise aboard the exclusively chartered, state-of-the-art, Five-Star Le Lapérouse, to be launched in 2018. Le Lapérouse introduces the deluxe and exclusive Blue Eye, the world’s first multisensory underwater lounge. Featuring only 92 Suites and Staterooms, this elegant small ship is able to sail into ports inaccessible to larger vessels.

This spectacular voyage calls on Santorini, Delos, Mykonos, Patmos, Rhodes and the Peloponnese peninsula—ancient destinations steeped in myth and history—and offers opportunities to visit nine magnificent UNESCO World Heritage sites. Visit the extraordinary scenic wonder of Meteora, where 24 Orthodox monasteries, built in the 14th and 15th centuries, are perched high atop soaring natural sandstone cliffs. Walk through the Sanctuary of Asklepios at Epidaurus, where the history of Hellenic and Roman early healing practices is engraved onto exquisitely preserved stelai, or inscribed stone slabs, and the Theater’s exemplary acoustics still reverberate today. Learn more about contemporary Greek island life during the exclusive Island Life® Forum, where you will meet and interact with local residents. Enjoy guided tours in these storied destinations and traditional Greek villages, with time at leisure to encounter their mysteries and delights at your own pace during the best time of the year. Aegean historian Eleni Zachariou will accompany us and share her extensive knowledge and expertise of the islands, Classical Art and Architecture and the peoples of her native Greece.

As our Duke group grows in size, a Duke host will join the trip to bring a uniquely Duke perspective to the tour. Island Life® in Ancient Greece is a popular, comprehensive travel program and an excellent value—all accommodations, meals, exclusive Cultural Enrichments and one excursion each day are included, and you only need to unpack once! Space is limited on this Aegean Odyssey, so book now!

ISLAND LIFE®

The Roman writer Cicero (106–43 B.C.) observed of Athens that “wherever you set your foot, you encounter some memory of the past”; the same can be said for all of Greece. Here, in the cradle of Western civilization, glorious 14th- to 15th-century Orthodox monasteries were built atop the towering sandstone precipices of Meteora, St. John the Apostle is believed to have penned the Book of Revelation on the island of Pátmos and the legend of the lost paradise city of Atlantis lives on in Santorini. Imagine Odysseus seeking redemption in the Underworld or Orpheus retrieving his lost love as you experience the islands of Classical mythology.

Envision ancient daily life at evocative archaeological sites, such as the Sacred Way and Akrotiri, and experience exclusive, local Cultural Enrichments, including an Island Life® Forum with Patmjans who will share their candid perspectives about life today on the ancient island, a folklore show and an authentic baklava culinary demonstration.
Athens, Greece
Birthplace of democracy and home to many of history’s greatest philosophers and poets from Socrates to Herodotus, Athens is unmatched in its contributions to early Western civilization.

Meteora
From the attractive port city of Volos, birthplace of legendary Argonaut Jason, travel across the fertile Plain of Thessaly to the seldom-visited natural wonder of Meteora—Greek for “suspended in the air”—an extraordinary enigma of virtually uncharted Orthodox monasteries. This breathtaking UNESCO World Heritage site was constructed in the 14th and 15th centuries a staggering 1300 feet above the valley floor, atop soaring natural sandstone pillars, where the early Christian traditions of these monasteries have continued uninterrupted for hundreds of years. Visit one of the four active monasteries, originally accessed by way of long ladders and baskets suspended on ropes, but today accessible by travel on a modern road overlooking verdant Peneas Valley with impossibly majestic sights.

Delos
The mythical birthplace of Apollo and Artemis, Delos is today a UNESCO World Heritage site. It is considered to be one of the most sacred islands in the Greek world, as central to Grecian spiritual life as Olympia and Delphi.

Mykonos
According to ancient legend, the craggy hills and clefts of Mykonos were formed from the petrified bodies of giants defeated by Hercules. Mykonos’ iconic windmills, bright white, cube-shaped houses and azure bays epitomize the striking beauty of the Greek Isles.

Cultural Enrichment:
Enjoy an afternoon at leisure to explore Mykonos’ quaint, narrow streets lined with whitewashed houses and boutiques or to sip ouzo harborside in Mykonos’s Little Venice.

Pátmos
The small island of Pátmos and its Greek Orthodox Monastery of St. John, St. John the Apostle is believed to have written the Book of Revelation in the Cave of the Apocalypse on Pátmos.
a UNESCO World Heritage site, loom large in the history of Christianity. Tour the monastery, built in 1088 and still inhabited by monks
who continue to preserve it as a pilgrimage site and place of religious study. See the Cave of the Apocalypse, where St. John the Apostle of Ephesus very possibly wrote the Book of Revelation in A.D. 95.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT:
Meet local residents who will discuss contemporary daily life on these ancient islands during the specially arranged ISLAND LIFE® FORUM.

Rhodes
The island of Rhodes has been one of the most prosperous and strategic strongholds in the eastern Mediterranean since the Neolithic Period.
Dock at the fortified wall of Rhodes Town, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and step into this extraordinarily well-preserved medieval city, built over a great Hellenistic metropolis and a major Christian outpost during the Crusades.
Visit the splendid 14th-century Palace of the Grand Masters, built by the Knights of St. John and one of the only examples of Gothic architecture in all of Greece.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT:
Join the excursion to the ancient village of Lindos.
See the magnificent frescoes adorning the Byzantine-style Church of Panagia and ascend the stone stairs to the clifftop acropolis for breathtaking views of the medieval Castle of the Knights of St. John. Or, enjoy a morning at leisure in Lindos to further explore its rich history and charming streets.

Santorini for Akrotiri
Be on deck as the ship cruises into the captivating harbor at Santorini, a natural caldera, beneath which is believed by some to be the legendary lost city of Atlantis. A cable car descends to sea level from the elevated town of Fira, where stunning white-walled buildings stand in stark contrast against the dark volcanic cliffs.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT:
Tour the phenomenal Bronze Age ruins of Akrotiri, recently reopened to visitors.
Held intact by layers of pumice and ash for over 3500 years, Akrotiri’s streets reveal the architectural sophistication and advanced culture of its Minoan inhabitants.

Nafplion for Mycenae and Epidaurus
Sail to the Peloponnese peninsula, known for its tremendous literary import and valued antiquities. Tour two UNESCO World Heritage highlights—the ancient citadel of Mycenae, the classical stage of Homer’s The Iliad, an epic text foundational to Western thought, and Epidaurus, an equally quintessential Hellenic site.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS:
Mycenae is bountiful in allusions to the age of Agamemnon, from its secret passages to Cyclopean walls, named because they were so tall
they were thought to have been built by giants.
In Epidaurus, visit the ancient Sanctuary of Asklepios, where the ruins bear testimony to Greco-Roman healing gods and medicinal knowledge, and the Theater is renowned for its nearly perfect acoustics.

The Lindos Acropolis rises 380 feet above the modern town overlooking the archipelago.
