Beijing, China
The former city of the Mongol, Ming and Manchu emperors, Beijing is one of China’s oldest citadels, replete with well-preserved, legendary sites and relics of imperial history. This thriving city of more than 20 million people, the country’s cultural and spiritual heart, is the ideal introduction to the dynamic narrative of ancient China.

Visit the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Great Wall of China, a symbol of imperial grandeur since 500 B.C. Constructed over the course of 2000 years, this imposing fortification once spanned more than 13,000 miles. From this historic border, marvel at sweeping views of China’s northern plains and valleys.

Walk through historic Tiananmen Square, expansive home to the memorial of modern China’s founder, Mao Zedong. Then, pass through the crimson Meridian Gate into the hallowed UNESCO World Heritage-designated Forbidden City, residence of Ming and Qing dynasty emperors for almost 500 years. Inside, ascend the stone steps of the delicately hewn Hall of Supreme Harmony to explore ceremonial halls and royal apartments layered in imperial history, gilded rosewood and playful sinuous dragon carvings.

A veritable masterpiece of Chinese landscaping and a UNESCO World Heritage site, the Summer Palace was the retreat of 19th-century Empress Dowager Cixi. Admire jewel-encrusted furniture in Cixi’s private apartments and see her ornate Marble Boat. Then, cruise by small boat across Kunming Lake’s tranquil waters, which, along with Longevity Hill, form the key aesthetic features of the Summer Palace gardens.

“It was a once-in-a-lifetime journey to eight cities. David and I are simply in awe of what you provided for the travelers. I truly believe that almost every single person in the group realizes we saw China as very few are privileged to do. Gohagan Travel Directors, the outstanding local guides, the hardworking and kind ship’s crew—they all were key to this incredible adventure.”

– Julie Nixon Eisenhower
See Chinese cosmogeny extraordinarily rendered in the Temple of Heaven, a UNESCO World Heritage-designated complex of religious buildings symbolizing the classic relationship between heaven and Earth.

Xi’an
Ancient Chang’an, known today as Xi’an, was China’s cosmopolitan capital for 11 dynasties. Here, at the fabled launching point of the Silk Road, many of the world’s great religions coexisted and camel caravans distributed Chinese and European goods and influence to the world. Tour the exquisite Yangling Imperial Tomb, where thousands of figurines excavated from the 2100-year-old tomb of Emperor Liu Qi capture the essence of daily life during the Han dynasty, when the arts prospered as never before.

Visit the famous UNESCO World Heritage site of the life-size Terra Cotta Warriors, no two alike. In 1974, farmers digging a well unearthed this incredible archaeological discovery—one of the most momentous finds of the 20th century—an army of thousands of terra cotta warriors and horses maintaining a silent vigil over the tomb of Emperor Qin Shi Huang (259-210 B.C.).

This visionary monarch, the first ruler of a unified China, introduced a standardized writing system, reformed the legal code and commenced construction of the Great Wall, the greatest public works project of its era. The emperor lies buried in a skillfully crafted mausoleum, the product of 36 years and the efforts of 700,000 laborers. The tomb itself remains unexcavated, guarded by manifold charioteers, infantry, cavalry and horses. Each warrior bears his own distinctive, lifelike expression and trappings denoting his official rank.

In Xi’an, walk along the best-preserved medieval walls in China, and explore the lively Huimin quarter, infused with the rich heritage of merchants who traveled the Silk Road 1300 years ago. See the triple-eaved Bell and Drum Towers, where watchmen once signaled dawn and dusk with a bell and a drum, respectively.

Enjoy traditional jiaozi (Chinese dumplings)—a touchstone of Chinese culinary history—for dinner in a famous Xi’an restaurant.

Lhasa, Tibet
One of the world’s highest elevated cities at nearly 12,000 feet, Lhasa has been a captivating center of Tibetan Buddhism since the religion was introduced here in the seventh century. The Historic Ensemble of Potala Palace, Norbulingka Palace and Jokhang Temple, all UNESCO World Heritage sites, are perched against a flourishing tableau of devout pilgrims, prostrating monks, colorful neighborhoods and medieval monasteries.

Atop rocky Red Mountain, ascend the stone staircase to a masterpiece of Tibetan architecture, Potala Palace, once the winter residence of the Dalai Lama, a towering 13 stories. See the ornately carved and painted ceremonial hall and throne of the Dalai Lama in the White Palace.
Farther up the mountain, visit the opulent chapels in the Red Palace, where jewel-laden monuments honor previous Dalai Lamas. Just outside the city, the 15th-century Sera Monastery, one of the great educational centers of Gelugpa, or Yellow Hat—the most widespread order of Tibetan Buddhism—once housed more than 5000 monks. Observe the animated style of debate they practice each afternoon in the courtyard of Sera’s largest school.

The 18th-century Norbulingka Palace, built by the seventh Dalai Lama, contains the lush “Jeweled Park,” the largest garden in Tibet. The elaborate Jokhang Temple—Tibet’s most sacred building—was constructed in A.D. 647. Outside the temple complex, fragrant incense perfumes the air and vivid silk robes and turquoise jewelry line the winding alleys of bustling Barkhor Square, where Tibetan monks spin prayer wheels and chant mantras. Lhasa’s only female Buddhist monastery, the Canggu Nunnery, is an oasis amid Barkhor’s activity; here, the residents welcome visitors to wander the brightly hued courtyards and listen to their rhythmic recitations.

Chongqing, China

Located at the confluence of the Yangtze and Jialing Rivers, this mountain city is known for its traditional teahouse culture and spicy Szechuan cuisine. In Chongqing’s zoo, see playful giant pandas—recently removed from the endangered species list—in specially designed gardens simulating their natural habitat.

Yangtze Cruise

Three Gorges/Three Lesser Gorges/Three Gorges Dam

Cruise for three days aboard the Victoria Jenna amid the natural grandeur of the Three Gorges.

Visit Shibaozhai, “Precious Stone Fortress,” a rocky promontory on the river’s north bank. Built into its side is the graceful Pearl of Yangtze, a 12-tiered red wooden pagoda rising 184 feet to a towering summit.

Pass through Kui Gate, the twin-peaked threshold into Qutang, the most dramatic of the Three Gorges. Admire the quiet beauty and sheer white cliffs of forest-flanked Wu Gorge, where the legendary Twelve Peaks crown misty Wu Mountain. Float gently through the hushed harmony of the Goddess Stream by private small boat and cruise through spectacular Xiling, the longest gorge, en route to the Three Gorges Dam.

From Maoping, visit the largest water conservancy project ever undertaken, the Three Gorges Dam. Considered a key to China’s modernization, it is the world’s largest power station.
The deluxe Victoria Jenna, custom-designed by a U.S. architectural firm, provides modern cruise comfort on the Yangtze River.

The 189 spacious, river-view Suites and Cabins, decorated in contemporary Chinese and Western styles, feature sliding glass doors that open onto a private balcony, perfect for viewing the stunning Three Gorges. Each also has air conditioning, a private bathroom with bathtub/shower, telephone, satellite television with English and international channels, safe, closet and hair dryer.

The Dynasty Restaurant serves breakfast, lunch and dinner featuring Chinese and Western cuisine with fresh local ingredients. Complimentary house wine and beer are included with lunch and dinner, while coffee, tea and soft drinks are available throughout the cruise.

For your leisure time on board there are two lounges and three bars, Observation Deck, library, Wi-Fi access, gift shop, spa and beauty salon and fitness room. Shipboard entertainment and exercise programs feature traditional Chinese culture. There is a doctor on board. Laundry service is available.

The highly trained, English-speaking crew provides personalized, amiable service. Gratuities to shipboard personnel are included.

Shanghai
The metropolis of Shanghai is a rousing blend of innovation and tradition. Today, architectural landmarks, including the neoclassical Customs House and the China Merchants Bank building, dot the famed Bund waterfront; across the fabled Huangpu, see the bold high-rises and broad avenues of Pudong, Shanghai's pulsing financial center; and tour the renowned Shanghai Museum, which houses a collection of ancient coins, including rare pieces from the central Asian kingdoms along the Silk Road. The rooftop of the Five-Star Fairmont Peace Hotel provides the perfect setting for the Farewell Reception, framed with breathtaking views of the city skyline along the Huangpu.

Chinese civilization originated along the Yellow and Yangtze Rivers during the Neolithic era, and for centuries, its culture, literature and philosophy flourished, with each dynasty and kingdom adding to its collective knowledge and heritage. Similarly, Tibet possesses a long and storied history of deep cultural tradition that formed along the Yarlung River Valley in the seventh century. Historic home of the Dalai Lama, Tibet’s remote location among the foothills of the Himalayan mountains holds an intriguing allure. The peaks of the Himalayas are sacred to Buddhism, the religion that serves as a powerful bridge between the physical and spiritual relationship of China and Tibet. Its teachings have played an influential role in the politics, economics, technology and art among Tibetans, Chinese and their neighbors through the present day. Yet, for hundreds of years, China and Tibet were insular countries, allowing only glimpses of their cultural richness to the outside world via the Silk Road, which further stoked the European imagination of distant lands in the East. A mysterious land, one which Napoleon referred to as “a sleeping giant that would change the world when awoken,” China finally lifted its shroud in 1972. The reopening of China, and Tibet several years later, and the introduction of their ancient traditions to the Western world, vaulted the country into its current progressive nation status, which continues to be a spectacular transformation of the most populous, perhaps most culturally unique place on Earth.
