Aboard the Exclusively Chartered, Small Ship
Five-Star LE LYRIAL

Featuring Alex Roland Ph.D. ’74
Professor Emeritus of History
September 15 to 23, 2019
Dear Duke Alumni and Friends:

The unspoiled coastlines and islands of the azure Adriatic and Aegean Seas are home to the distinctive cultures of the Roman, Byzantine, Venetian and Slavic civilizations that flourished here for more than three thousand years. Travel the pathways of these great civilizations into five countries—Italy, Croatia, Montenegro, Albania and Greece—and through the Corinth Canal, an extraordinary experience possible only by small ship.

On the Five-Star Le Lyrial, a small ship featuring 110 oceanview Suites and Staterooms, cruise along the coast of Dalmatia; cross the Isthmus of Corinth, passing through the narrow canal between soaring, 300-foot limestone walls to the Aegean Sea; and conclude in Athens, the birthplace of Western civilization.

Call on ancient walled cities, medieval villages, picturesque islands and the dramatic fjord-like Bay of Kotor and visit six UNESCO World Heritage sites. Discover the many hidden gems along the Dalmatian coast as daily life unfolds before you and merges with the legacies of ancient cultures.

Enjoy our private, specially arranged lectures, exclusive CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS and the insightful COASTAL LIFE® FORUM featuring personal perspectives from local Montenegrin residents. In addition, enjoy lectures and insights from your Duke Study Leader. Book now, while Early Booking Savings and space are still available.

Forever Duke,

Study Leader

Alex Roland Ph.D. ’74 is Professor Emeritus of History at Duke University and taught there for 30 years, specializing in military history and the history of technology. On our cruise, he will explore the intersection of these two fields as we traverse the Adriatic Sea from Venice to Athens. He will focus on sea power, the concept defined by Admiral Alfred Thayer Mahan, America’s foremost military theorist.

Roland will explore the work of Galileo Galilei and the famous Venice Arsenal, where his research contributed to Venice’s dominance of Mediterranean commerce and warfare while also building the foundations for the Scientific Revolution. We will consider how Athens combined strategy, tactics, geography and fortification to defeat the invading Persian empire in 480 B.C., securing all of Greece for the Golden Age that followed. As we cruise the Adriatic Sea, Roland will revisit Winston Churchill’s World War II strategy of attacking the Axis Powers in the “soft underbelly” of Europe instead of at Normandy. Churchill believed that his plan could have changed the course of the ensuing Cold War. In all of these historic episodes, events in and around the Balkans shaped the course of European, Western and world history.

Noted study leaders and experienced, English-speaking local guides will accompany you throughout this program to discuss historical, cultural and contemporary Croatia, Montenegro, Greece and Albania. This popular program of the Coastal Life® series offers a comprehensive, intimate journey at just the right pace, with a balanced itinerary of Cultural Enrichments including guided tours and time on your own to immerse yourself in the heart and soul of this charming, sun-kissed region.

Observe the Emperor Diocletian’s Palace in Split, built 17 centuries ago by the Romans.
Split, Croatia
Split’s nearly 2000-year-old city center, a UNESCO World Heritage site, was built on the foundation of Roman Emperor Diocletian’s retirement palace and remains a thriving community. Visit the Temple of Jupiter, one of the world’s best-preserved Roman temples, and the Cathedral of Saint Domnius (A.D. 305), regarded as the world’s oldest Catholic cathedral still in use in its original structure. Cultural Enrichment: Croatia’s most accomplished sculptor, Ivan Meštrović, became the first living artist to exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. Experience his unique vision in the Meštrović Gallery.

Hvar
Since the fourth century B.C., Greeks, Romans, Byzantines and Venetians have left their mark on the island of Hvar. Visit the Old Town’s centuries-old landmarks including the Renaissance Cathedral of St. Stephen and its four-story bell tower. The 350-year-old Benedictine Convent is known for handcrafted unique lace made from agave and aloe thread, a delicate practice recognized by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Korčula
Inside the original 13th-century walls of this charming island city, you will find the Abbey Treasury, home to a priceless collection of medieval manuscripts and artwork; the house where Marco Polo is rumored to have been born; and masterful works by Tintoretto in the 15th-century, Gothic-Renaissance-style Cathedral of St. Mark. Cultural Enrichment: By special arrangement, listen to local singers perform klapa, traditional a cappella folk music, recognized by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Dubrovnik
Affectionately called “the pearl of the Adriatic,” Dubrovnik is a UNESCO World Heritage site in recognition of its beautiful historic treasures. Visit the 15th-century Rector’s Palace and the fascinating Maritime Museum, and see Onofrio Fountain, the Romanesque Franciscan Monastery and the well-preserved Old City walls. Cultural Enrichment: Enjoy your afternoon at leisure to explore Dubrovnik’s history and culture.

Admire the impressive Venetian-built bastions and towers and the 13th-century walls that encircle Korčula.
Kotor, Montenegro
The breathtaking Bay of Kotor winds deep into the mountains of Montenegro, one of the newest nations in the world. Charming Kotor is a UNESCO World Heritage site for its Venetian Baroque Old Town and impressive medieval fortifications.

Cultural Enrichment: Meet and engage with local residents who will discuss daily life along the Adriatic during the specially arranged COASTAL LIFE® Forum.

Butrint, Albania
Virgil called Butrint parvam Troiam (little Troy), a stop for Aeneas and his exiled Trojans on their epic journey. A short drive to 16th-century Lekursi Castle provides a stunning panoramic view of the coastal city of Sarandë.

Cultural Enrichment: Butrint’s UNESCO World Heritage-designated ruins trace three thousand years of ancient civilizations, from the Greek and Roman to the Byzantine and Ottoman Empires. The Greco-Roman amphitheater evokes the ancient city’s rich cultural life. Public baths, a gymnasium and an aqueduct built by Emperor Caesar Augustus offer glimpses of Butrint as a Roman port, while the intricately tiled Baptistery depicts its ties to early Christianity.

Corfu, Greece
Cruise to the Ionian island of Corfu, Homer’s “beautiful and rich land,” where cultural influences of past rulers are reflected in the French boulevards, Georgian mansions, Venetian citadel and Greek temple.

Cultural Enrichment: Enjoy a walking tour of the Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and see the 17th-century Town Hall, once a Venetian theater, and the Edwardian Palace of the former king of Greece.

Delphi
Delphi, considered the center of the Greek world in the sixth century B.C., is now a UNESCO World Heritage site. Ancient Greeks from all walks of life flocked to sacred Mount Parnassus to consult the high priestess of the Temple of Apollo. Tour the magnificent Archaeological Museum, a treasure trove of ancient artifacts including the life-size fifth-century B.C. bronze statue of the Charioteer of Delphi.

Cultural Enrichment: Walk along the Sacred Way to the sanctuary of Delphi and stand at the marble Altar of the Chians, where the common and the mighty once awaited the oracle’s pronouncements.

Corinth Canal
Cruise through the Corinth Canal, first thought to be proposed in the seventh century B.C. and not fully realized until 1893. Cutting through the Isthmus of Corinth and at one point only 70 feet wide, it is so narrow that only small ships can make its passage.

Cruise through the Corinth Canal, an engineering marvel.
