Duke ALUMNI

Dear Duke Alumni and Friends:

With over 5000 years of history, the storied lands of Greece, Egypt and Jordan stand at the crossroads of religious faith and cultural enlightenment. These countries comprise the cradle of civilization, where breathtaking sights inspire awe.

This custom-designed, 14-day journey takes you to three continents. Navigate the legendary waterways of the Red Sea, Mediterranean Sea, and Aegean Sea; transit the seminal Suez Canal and experience nine magnificent UNESCO World Heritage sites. Cruise for eight nights aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star LE BOUGAINVILLE, which features just 92 elegant suites and staterooms, each with a private balcony.

Wonder at the “rose-red” city of Petra. Stand in the shadows of the three iconic pyramids of Giza, an incredible engineering feat that still dominates the horizon guarded by the inscrutable Great Sphinx. Visit the Nile Valley city of Thebes, including the magnificent Karnak Temple Complex, Luxor Temple, and specially arranged access to Queen Nefertari’s tomb in the Valley of the Queens. Follow in the footsteps of the nomadic Bedouins across Wadi Rum, an orange-hued sea of sand where Lawrence of Arabia established his base. View antiquities spanning 7000 years at the venerable Egyptian Museum or experience the sublime second coming of Alexandria’s Bibliotheca (2002), which pays homage to the Pan-Hellenic empire represented by its predecessor.

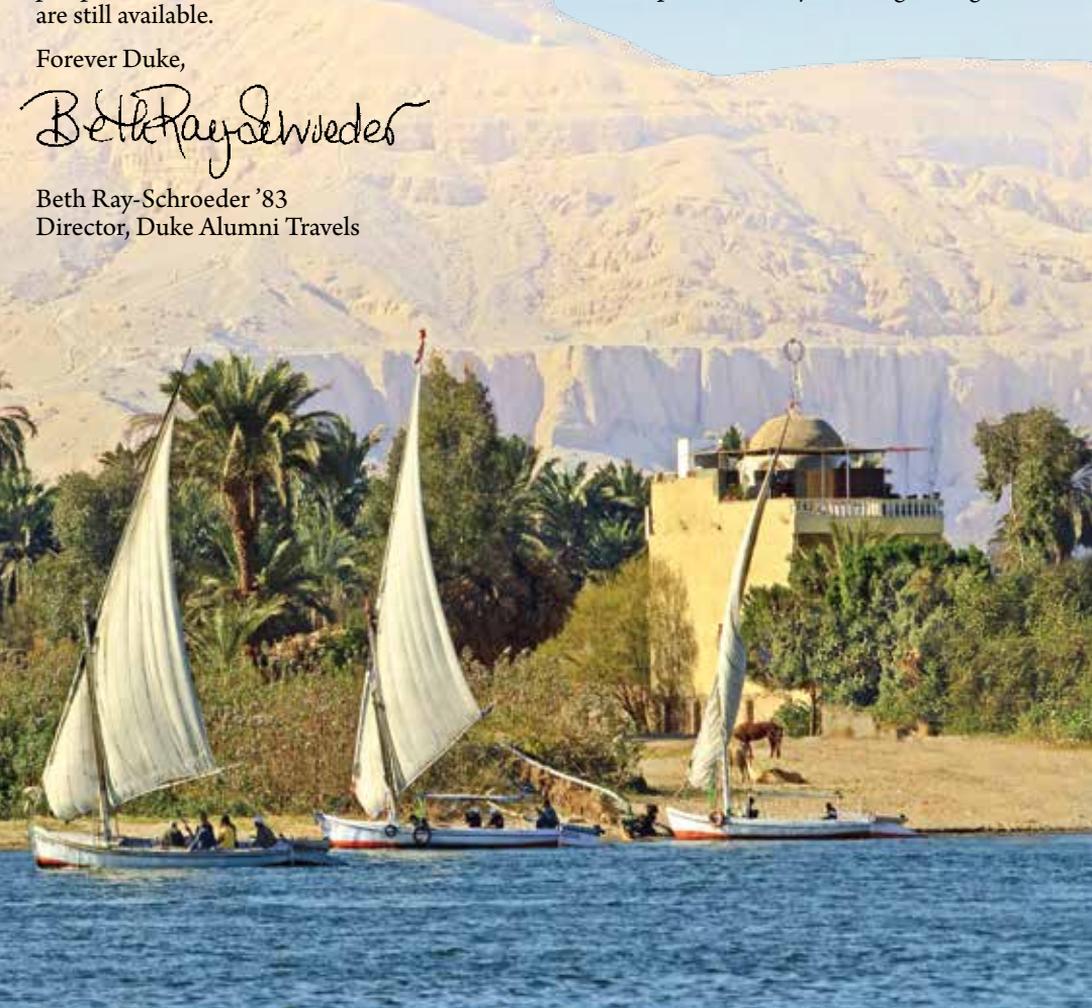

During the Pre-Program Option to Israel, explore the archaeological sites and biblical reference points of Jerusalem, Masada, the Dead Sea and the Sea of Galilee. On our Post-Program Option, visit the spectacular remnants of Ancient Greece, including the Acropolis and Delphi.

As our Duke group grows in size, a Duke host will join the trip to bring a uniquely Duke perspective to the tour. Call us to make reservations while space and Early Booking Savings are still available.

Forever Duke,

🌐UNESCO World Heritage site

Amman, Jordan

Amman's wealth of archaeological artifacts stands testament to centuries of cultural influences. This biblical Ammonite city was conquered and renamed Philadelphia by Egypt's King Ptolemy II Philadelphus in the third century B.C. Expanded by the Romans, Philadelphia flourished as the heart of Roman Arabia. From the Citadel, see the towering columns of the Temple of Hercules looming over the cosmopolitan capital of Amman, where the magnificent, 6000-seat Roman theater, dating from the second century, forms the city's centerpiece and still stages performances. The lauded Jordan Museum preserves the world's oldest statues, the remarkable plaster statuettes of 'Ain Ghazal, adroitly fashioned in 6500 B.C. Everyone is welcome in the beautiful, blue-domed King Abdullah Mosque, built by the late King Hussein in honor of his grandfather.

Jerash

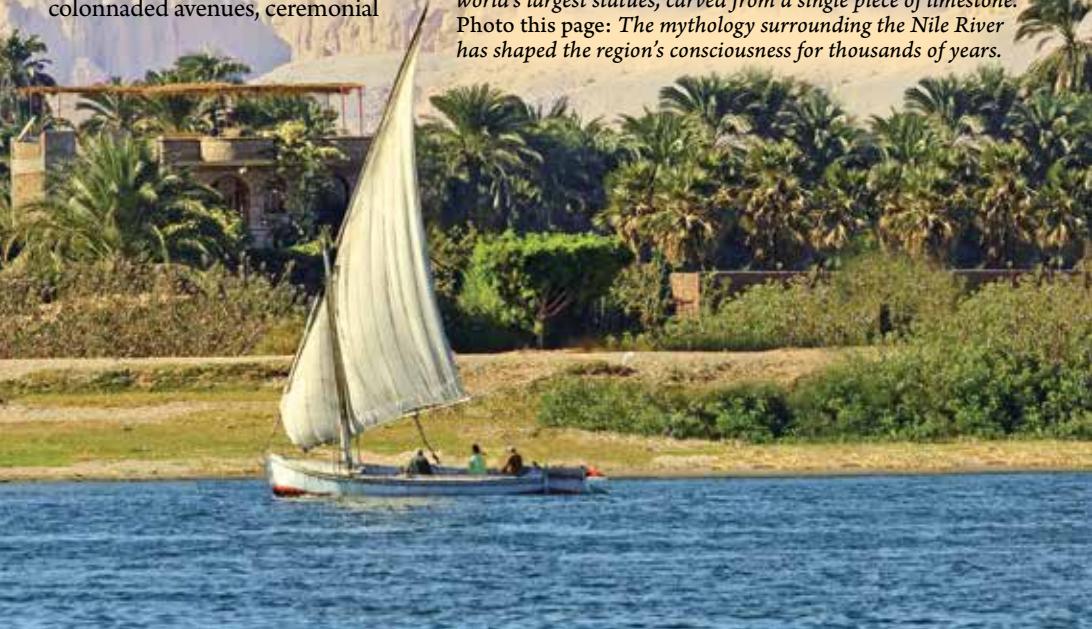

Often invoked as the "Pompeii of Asia," Jerash's remarkably preserved colonnaded avenues, ceremonial gates and golden-hued temples speak to its stature as one of the Roman Decapolis's most important cities. Marvel at the prodigious Hadrian's Arch, the intricately carved Temples of Artemis and Zeus and the immense scale and sublime architecture of the Forum.

Petra

The inspiring, ancient "rose-red city" of Petra is a UNESCO World Heritage site and one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. Petra reached its zenith during the first century B.C. as the capital of the nomadic Bedouin Nabataean Empire. Concealed behind towering rocks, the city ignited Western scholarly interest when Swiss explorer Johann Ludwig Burckhardt was led through the Siq—a narrow, serpentine gorge—to Petra's spellbinding Khazneh (Treasury) by a Bedouin guide in 1812. The site's majestic ensemble of temples, dwellings and tombs, carved directly into the sandstone cliff face, still holds a mythical appeal.

Look for Bedouins traversing Wadi Rum, a dramatic labyrinth of towering granite and sandstone formations.

Wadi Rum

Shaped and smoothed by millennia of winter floods and desert wind and sand, Wadi Rum was aptly described by British soldier and diplomat T. E. Lawrence, the legendary Lawrence of Arabia, as “vast, echoing and godlike.” This ethereal landscape of striated canyons, soaring jebel (mountains), undulating sand dunes and rocky caverns is best experienced from a four-passenger open-air vehicle.

Temples of Luxor and Karnak, Egypt

The treasures and architectural legacy of fabled Thebes—the imperial capital of Egypt’s New Kingdom (1550 to 1069 B.C.)—are revealed at stunning Karnak and Luxor Temples. Karnak’s vast complex of obelisks, shrines and sanctuaries reaches its apogee with the hypostyle hall, comprised of 134 colossal stone columns arranged in rows and emblazoned with hieroglyphs.

Luxor Temple’s exquisite bas-reliefs depict seminal events, such as Ramses’s victory at the Battle of Kadesh in 1274 B.C. The dramatic “Avenue of the Sphinxes” once stretched from Karnak to Luxor, forming the spiritual and economic nexus of the region.

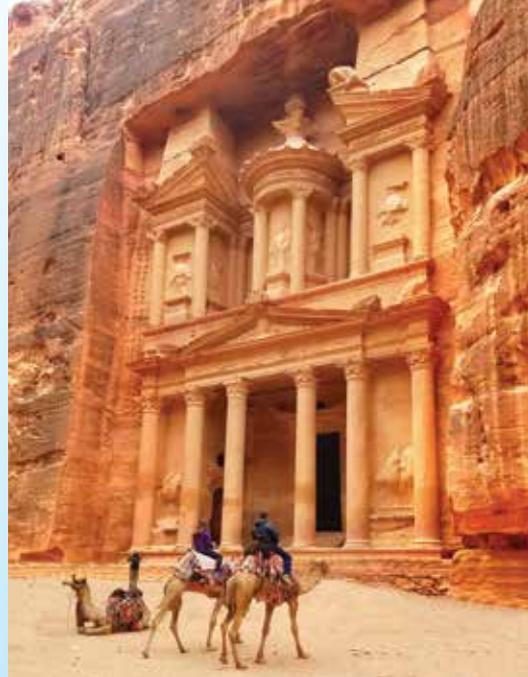

The Valley of the Kings and Valley of the Queens

Framed by arid Theban hills, the Nile’s west bank’s hallowed Necropolis is replete with spectacular memorial temples built to perpetuate the cult of the pharaoh. In the Valley of the Kings, 63 illustrious pharaohs of Egypt’s New Kingdom and their worldly wealth were laid to rest in tombs engraved with hieroglyphs. Passageways descend to the burial chambers of King Ramses IV, where a rare image of the goddess Nut is emblazoned across a blue ceiling. The famous tomb of Tutankhamen contained the largest collection of Egyptian treasures and was discovered in 1922 by British archaeologist Harold Carter, funded by his partner Lord Carnarvon who resided in Highclere Castle of Downton Abbey fame. In the Valley of the Queens, enjoy an exclusively arranged visit to Queen Nefertari’s tomb, lauded as the most resplendent Theban burial site. The beauty of Ramses II’s favorite queen is enshrined in the spectacular wall paintings and divine images of her likeness.

Marvel at the golden mask of child pharaoh Tutankhamen.

Behold Petra's dazzling "rose-red" Nabataean façades, carved to honor a god said to inhabit the rocks.

The Great Pyramids of Giza

The last remaining Wonder of the Ancient World, the pyramids of the Old Kingdom pharaohs Cheops, Chephren and Mycerinus, along with the Great Sphinx, are enduring symbols of the glory of Egypt that have towered over the Western Desert for nearly 5000 years. Nearby, Pharaoh Khufu's reassembled funerary vessel, an incredible feat of ancient engineering, is housed in the Solar Boat Museum.

Suez Canal Transit

One of the most momentous voyages between continents transits the 120-mile Suez Canal, Egypt's glorious, Victorian-era engineering achievement. The canal was first conceived in the 1830s by French explorer and engineer Linant de Bellefonds and opened in 1869. Connecting the Red Sea to the Mediterranean Sea, the canal reduced the journey between Europe and South Asia by over 4000 miles, redefining international maritime trade.

Feel the humbling scale of the hypostyle hall at Karnak Temple, one of the largest religious structures ever built.

See beautifully preserved Qaitbey Fort, built to defend Alexandria from the Ottoman Empire.

Alexandria or Cairo

Choose between a tour of legendary Alexandria, founded by 25-year-old Alexander the Great in 331 B.C., or the UNESCO World Heritage-designated treasures of Historic Cairo.

The fulcrum of the ancient Hellenic world, Alexandria is Egypt's most beguiling city. The Lighthouse of Alexandria—one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World—shone as a beacon of enlightenment, while the Library of Alexandria, with its vast archive of over 140,000 manuscripts and papyrus scrolls, formed a magnet for the ancient world's greatest scientists, from Euclid to Archimedes. The Library's visionary reincarnation, the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, constructed in 2002, resembles a giant discus emblazoned with hieroglyphs and symbolizes a second sun rising. Built on top of the remains of the Lighthouse of Alexandria, imposing Qaitbey Fort has served as a stronghold since 1480.

The city's history can be traced from classical antiquity to modernity at the National Museum, where beautifully curated artifacts are housed in a restored Italianate villa. The cultural and religious heterogeneity that defined Alexandria in the second century is evident at the Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa, Egypt's largest Roman burial structure, lauded for its Egyptian, Greek and Roman sculpture, art and motifs.

Or, experience the grandeur of UNESCO World Heritage-designated Historic Cairo and Visit Roman Jerash, including the Nymphaeum, the city's main ornamental fountain.
