Dear Duke Travelers:

Visit three continents, navigate the legendary waterways of the Red Sea, Gulf of Aqaba, Mediterranean Sea and Aegean Sea, transit the seminal Suez Canal and see up to seven magnificent UNESCO World Heritage sites on this custom-designed 14-day journey to the classical world's very cradle of civilization. Cruise for eight nights aboard the exclusively chartered Five-Star Le Bellot, which features just 92 elegant Suites and Staterooms, each with a private balcony.

Duke Travels is pleased to have engaged Thomas P. Gohagan & Company to operate this Program. Joining Duke travelers on this program is Dr. Caroline Bruzelius, Anne Murnick Cogan Distinguished Professor Emerita of Art and Art History at Duke University. Visit the historic Library of Alexandria. Stand in the shadows of the three iconic pyramids of Giza, an incredible engineering feat that still dominates the horizon and stands guarded by the inscrutable Great Sphinx. Enjoy excursions to the revered sites of the Nile Valley city of Thebes, including the magnificent Karnak Temple Complex, Luxor Temple and specially arranged access to Queen Nefertari's tomb in the Valley of the Queens. Follow in the footsteps of the nomadic Bedouins across Wadi Rum, an orange-hued sea of sand where Lawrence of Arabia established his base.

On our Pre-Program Option, visit the spectacular remnants of Ancient Greece, including the Acropolis and Delphi. Extend your journey on our Post-Program Option to visit the Holy Land, including archaeological sites and biblical reference points featuring Jerusalem, Masada, the Dead Sea and the Sea of Galilee.

This incomparable itinerary offers opportunities to explore antiquity, cruise along ancient trade routes and immerse yourself in the dazzling panorama of human history. Make reservations on this unique program while space and Early Booking Savings are still available.

Forever Duke,

Athens, Greece
The birthplace of democracy and home to many of history’s greatest philosophers and poets, the ancient city of Athens is unmatched in its contributions to early Western civilization.

Santorini
Widely considered to be the site of the mythical lost city of Atlantis, Santorini overlooks a submerged caldera, the result of one of the most cataclysmic volcanic eruptions in history. Its picture-perfect whitewashed villages of sugar-cube houses and blue-domed churches cascade to serene waters.

The remarkable Bronze Age ruins of Akrotiri, held intact by layers of pumice and ash for over 3,500 years, reveal the architectural sophistication and advanced culture of its Minoan inhabitants. Findings from Akrotiri are elegantly exhibited in the Museum of Prehistoric Thera.

By cable car, descend from Fira, where stunning white-walled buildings stand in stark contrast against slate-colored volcanic cliffs.

Alexandria, Egypt
The fulcrum of the ancient Hellenic world, Alexandria is Egypt’s most beguiling city. Tour legendary Alexandria, founded by 25-year-old Alexander the Great in 331 B.C. Imposing Qaitbey Fort was built on top of the remains of the Lighthouse of Alexandria—one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World—and has served as a stronghold since 1480. The Library of Alexandria, with its vast archive of over 140,000 manuscripts and papyrus scrolls, formed a magnet for the ancient world’s greatest scientists, from Euclid to Archimedes. The Library’s visionary reincarnation, the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, constructed in 2002, resembles a giant discus adorned with hieroglyphs, symbolizing a second sun rising.

Suez Canal Transit
One of the most momentous voyages between continents transits the 120-mile Suez Canal, Egypt’s glorious, Victorian-era engineering achievement.

The Holy Land Post-Program Option

UNESCO World Heritage Site

Photo this page: The mythology surrounding the Nile River has shaped the region’s identity for thousands of years.
The canal was first conceived in the 1830s by French explorer and engineer Linant de Bellefonds and opened in 1869. Connecting the Mediterranean Sea to the Red Sea, the canal reduced the journey between Europe and South Asia by over 4,000 miles, redefining international maritime trade.

The Great Pyramids of Giza
The last remaining Wonder of the Ancient World, the pyramids of the Old Kingdom pharaohs Cheops, Chephren and Mycerinus comprise the Great Pyramids of Giza and are enduring symbols of the glory of Egypt that have towered over the Western Desert for nearly 5,000 years.

See the iconic Great Sphinx, carved from a single mass of limestone with the body of a lion and head of a pharaoh. This marvel of human sculpture is speculated to date from Egypt's fourth dynasty.

Temples of Luxor and Karnak
The treasures and architectural legacy of fabled Thebes—the imperial ancient capital of Egypt’s New Kingdom—are revealed at stunning Karnak and Luxor Temples. Karnak’s vast complex of obelisks, shrines and sanctuaries reaches its apogee with the hypostyle hall, comprised of 134 colossal stone columns arranged in rows and etched with hieroglyphs. Luxor Temple’s exquisite bas-reliefs depict seminal events, such as Ramses’ victory at the Battle of Kadesh in 1274 B.C.

The dramatic Avenue of the Sphinxes once stretched from Karnak to Luxor, forming the spiritual and economic nexus of the region.

The Valley of the Kings and Valley of the Queens
Framed by arid Theban hills, the Nile’s west bank’s hallowed Necropolis is replete with spectacular memorial temples built to perpetuate the cult of the pharaoh. In the Valley of the Kings, 63 illustrious pharaohs of Egypt’s New Kingdom and their worldly wealth were laid to rest in tombs engraved with hieroglyphs.

Dr. Tarek Sayed Tawfik Ahmed, internationally acclaimed Egyptologist, will present exclusive lectures about the culture, way of life and iconic creations of ancient Egypt.
Ancient passageways descend to the burial chambers of King Ramses IV—where a rare image of the goddess Nut is emblazoned across a blue ceiling—and the 3,300-year-old tomb of boy king Tutankhamen. In the Valley of the Queens, enjoy a specially arranged visit to Queen Nefertari’s tomb, lauded as the most resplendent Theban burial site. The beauty of Ramses II’s favorite queen is enshrined in the spectacular wall paintings and divine images of her likeness.

Wadi Rum
Shaped and smoothed by millennia of winter floods and desert wind and sand, Wadi Rum was aptly described by British soldier and diplomat T. E. Lawrence, the legendary Lawrence of Arabia, as “vast, echoing and godlike.” Known as the Valley of the Moon, this region has seen human activity for nearly 12,000 years. This ethereal landscape of grooved canyons, soaring mountains, undulating sand dunes and rocky caverns is best experienced from a four-passenger open-air vehicle.

Petra
The inspiring, ancient “rose-red city” of Petra is a UNESCO World Heritage site and one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. Petra reached its zenith during the first century B.C. as the capital of the nomadic Bedouin Nabataean Empire. Concealed behind towering rocks, the city ignited Western scholarly interest when Swiss explorer Johann Ludwig Burckhardt was led through the Siq—a narrow, serpentine gorge—to Petra’s spellbinding Khazneh (Treasury) by a Bedouin guide in 1812. The site’s majestic ensemble of temples, dwellings and tombs, carved directly into the sandstone cliff face, still holds a wondrous, mythical appeal.

Amman, Jordan
Amman’s wealth of archaeological artifacts and ancient ruins reflect centuries of diverse cultural influences. This biblical Ammonite city was conquered and renamed Philadelphia by Egypt’s King Ptolemy II Philadelphus in the third century B.C. Expanded by the Romans, Philadelphia flourished for nearly four centuries as the heart of Roman Arabia.

Feel the humbling scale of the hypostyle hall at Karnak Temple, one of the largest religious structures ever built. Visit Roman Jerash, including the Nymphaeum, the city’s main ornamental fountain.
Luxury Small Ship, Innovative Design
Le Bellot, launched in 2020, represents a new generation of Five-Star small ships, combining revolutionary design and a new standard of luxury. Dock in smaller ports inaccessible to larger ships.

Respect for the Environment
A new addition to the Ponant “Clean Ship” fleet, an important certification among ocean-cruising vessels, Le Bellot is energy efficient and eco-friendly, protecting fragile marine ecosystems.

Chic and Casual Dining
Dine indoors or alfresco on international and regional cuisine served in the stylish restaurant, at the casual pool deck grill or from 24-hour room service. Meals include full breakfast service, lunch, afternoon tea and four-course dinner.

Elegant Suites and Staterooms, 100% with Private Balconies
Each of the 92 Five-Star Staterooms and Suites (up to 484 square feet) features a private balcony. Grand Deluxe Suites have a bay window and spacious private terrace. Accommodations offer two twin beds or one queen bed, individual climate control, private bathroom with a shower and luxury hotel-style amenities.

Life on Board
Enjoy views from the indoor-outdoor lounges and educational lectures, cultural performances or film screenings in the state-of-the-art theater. Relax in the spa, infinity-style swimming pool or the Blue Eye underwater Observation Lounge. The ship has a beauty salon, a fitness room and three elevators. Complimentary Wi-Fi access is available (conditions permitting).

World-Class Service
The highly trained, English-speaking crew is personable and attentive, and the ship has a medical center staffed with a doctor and a nurse.

Today, Amman’s plethora of Roman ruins stand testament to the Roman Empire’s long-reaching and enduring influence. From the Citadel, see the towering columns of the Temple of Hercules looming over the Jordan’s cosmopolitan capital, where the magnificent, 6,000-seat Roman Theater, dating from the second century, forms the city’s centerpiece and still stages performances.

Jerash
Historical Jerash, established as a town during the reign of Alexander the Great, was officially ushered into the Roman Empire after Pompey’s conquest in 64 B.C. Often invoked as the “Pompeii of Asia,” Jerash’s ancient, remarkably preserved colonnaded avenues, ceremonial gates and golden-hued temples speak to its stature as one of the Roman Decapolis’s most important cities.

Marvel at prodigious Hadrian’s Arch at the city’s entrance and dating to 129 A.D., the intricately carved Temples of Artemis and Zeus and the immense scale and sublime architecture of the historic Forum.

BOOK WITH CONFIDENCE! No land/cruise cancellation fees for new bookings until 51 days prior to trip departure.
RESPONSIBILITY: Gohagan & Company, Duke University, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (collectively “Gohagan”), do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your program including, for example, lodging facilities, airline, vessel, or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground transportation, or any other similar category for those listed in this brochure. Gohagan is not responsible for fees assessed by air carriers resulting from operational weather, water conditions or levels, other events of force majeure, mechanical or other transportation using hotels, inns or lodges for cruise accommodations if necessary due to weather, water conditions or levels, other events of force majeure, mechanical or other conditions beyond the control of Gohagan. Gohagan is not responsible therefore and is not required to compensate passengers under these circumstances. Gohagan may cancel or postpone a program (or an option) for any reason whatsoever. If so, for cancellations based upon acts of God or force majeure, acts or orders of government, epidemics or the threat thereof, terrorism or the threat thereof, strikes or labor disturbances, Demonstration of Gohagan in writing, accompanied by the required deposit notice.

BOUNDARY OF LIABILITY: Gohagan reserves the right to substitute motorcoach transportation using hotels, sites or lodges for cruise accommodations if necessary due to weather, water conditions or levels, other events of force majeure, mechanical or other conditions beyond the control of Gohagan. Gohagan is not responsible therefore and is not required to compensate passengers under these circumstances. Gohagan may cancel or postpone a program (or an option) for any reason whatsoever. If so, for cancellations based upon acts of God or force majeure, acts or orders of government, epidemics or the threat thereof, terrorism or the threat thereof, strikes or labor disturbances, Gohagan reserves the right to substitute vessels, hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure.

NOT INCLUDED: Taxes; passport, visa and associated fees; COVID-19 related expenses and associated fees; personal expenses such as laundry, telephone calls and internet access or any other expenses unless specifically otherwise described; accident/sickness, trip cancellation, travel insurance, gratuities to ship and hotel personnel; options; sightseeing excursions; baggage charges on aircraft; local departure air/airport tax(es); accident/sickness, trip cancellation, travel insurance, gratuities to ship and hotel personnel; options; sightseeing excursions; baggage charges on aircraft; local departure air/airport tax(es); airfare and associated local taxes, airport facility and security taxes and federal inspection fees not listed as included in the travel program, transfers and baggage handling to/from airport/hotel/ship on day(s) of arrival and/or departure if you are arriving earlier or leaving later than the published arrival/departure dates; any overnight on land due to flight schedule(s); meals, alcoholic or other beverages and all other services not specifically mentioned as included in the travel program.

AIRFARE: Airfare is subject to change and availability and, depending on the fare basis, likely is nonrefundable. Your airline ticket constitutes a contract between you and the airline, even if purchased through Gohagan.

LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without notice.

PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Physical health sufficient to meet the needs of the program and any related medical condition that may affect or limit your participation, any special or medical assistance (for example, the need for a wheelchair) must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Participants must be able to embark or disembark motorcoaches alone or with minimal assistance from your traveling companion and climb stairs and stop over raised thresholds without assistance. Participants requiring assistance must travel with a companion who is responsible for handling equipment.

DISCOUNTED RESERVATIONS: Discounts apply only to those reservations received in the offices of Gohagan in writing, as requested by the required deposit. In the event a “Discounted” reservation must be cancelled, no “replacement” reservation can be substituted. If you are transferring to a program with a higher price, you will be responsible for the difference in price.

CANCELLATION FEES: Cancellations for all or any part of the program including pre- and post-program(s) reservation(s) will not be effective unless received in writing in the offices of Gohagan. For New Bookings: All cancellation fees will be waived from the time of booking through 53 days prior to departure for main program and pre- and/or post-program option bookings. Thereafter, cancellation fees apply as follows: 50 days or less prior to departure: A cancellation fee of 100% of the trip paid, including fees paid for pre- and/or post-program options. In the event of a travel program cancellation 50 days or less prior to departure, the refund will be by credit, usable on a future Gohagan trip which commences on or before December 31, 2023. These cancellation fees are applicable only for new bookings. For bookings which have been transferred, the original cancellation fee as stated in the original brochure applies. In addition, for all bookings for any applicable airline cancellation fees, optional excursion cancellation fees and administrative fees may apply.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: We strongly recommend for your protection that you purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation in a travel program, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Insurance information will be sent upon confirmation from Duke.

RATES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of printing and may change without notice to and/or subject to change at any time. On land and/or cruise programs, even after full payment, Gohagan reserves the right to increase the program price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, currency fluctuations or fuel or energy surcharges and all such increases are to be paid to Gohagan upon notice to the program participant of such increases. For bookings which include Gohagan purchased interstate or international air (which originates or returns to the United States), no increased costs will be passed due to travel program cancellations arising from any cause.

Gohagan must be on behalf of only the signatory to this Agreement and his or her successors and assigns. This agreement and any issues regarding the program will be governed by the laws of the State of North Carolina.

BINDING ARBITRATION: Any dispute concerning, relating or referring to this Agreement, the brochure or any other Literature concerning the program, or the program itself, shall be resolved exclusively by binding arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. Sections 1-16, either according to the then existing Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or pursuant to the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules & Procedures of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services, Inc. (JAMS). Such proceedings will be governed by substantive (but not procedural) Illinois law and will take place in Chicago, Illinois. The arbitrator and not any federal, state, or local court or agency shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including, but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. Please understand that by agreeing to these terms and conditions, the participant and Gohagan are waiving the right to a trial by jury. Any arbitration commenced against Gohagan must be on behalf of only the signatory to this Agreement and his or her immediate family members who traveled with signatory, such as a spouse or child. Under no circumstances can participant be part of a class or other joint action.

ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACT: By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she does not have any mental, physical or other condition of disability that would create a hazard for him/herself or other participants and accepts the terms contained in this Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement for this program or for any program to which he/she may transfer.
