A World Apart

The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. It should be about the people and the history, the traditions and the cuisine that you encounter along the way. It should be about the culture and the landscapes that you see, and the sense of discovery and adventure that you experience. It should be about the joy of being in a place that is different from home, and the sense of wonder and excitement that you feel when you explore the unknown. And it should be about the freedom and the independence that you feel when you are able to make your own choices and follow your own path. It should be about the people and the places that you meet, and the stories that you hear and the experiences that you share.

Experience the immensity of the temples and the architecture of the Golden Triangle, the mysterious allure of Angkor, and the beauty of the Mekong Delta. Join AHI’s team of expert lecturers and guides, who will help you discover the hidden treasures of Thailand. From the temples of Bangkok to the beaches of Phuket, you will see the best of Thailand on this epic journey.

The journey begins in Bangkok, where you will explore the city’s vibrant streets and its rich history. You will visit the Grand Palace, the Temple of the Emerald Buddha, and the Chao Phraya River, and you will enjoy a dinner at a local restaurant. You will then travel to the Mekong Delta, where you will see the floating market and the rice paddies. You will also visit the city of Phnom Penh, and you will see the Royal Palace and the National Museum.

The journey continues to the city of Hoi An, where you will see the ancient town and its beautiful temples. You will also visit the city of Ho Chi Minh, and you will see the Cu Chi Tunnels and the War Remnants Museum. You will then travel to the city of Luang Prabang, where you will see the temple complex and the ancient city. You will also visit the city of Phuket, and you will see the beaches and the islands.

The journey concludes in Singapore, where you will explore the city’s vibrant streets and its rich history. You will visit the Singapore Flyer, the Marina Bay Sands, and the Civic District. You will also enjoy a farewell dinner at the Shangri-la Hotel.
