Dear Duke Alumni and Friends,

Unforgettable adventures await you on this incredible journey to Peru! Perú, often referred to as the "Land of the Incas," sits at the southern tip of the Andes Mountains, nestled between the Pacific Ocean and the Amazon rainforest. This country is home to breathtaking landscapes, a rich cultural heritage, and a history that spans thousands of years.

Our Peru program offers a unique blend of guided excursions and independent exploration. You'll have the opportunity to visit Lima, the capital city and cultural hub of Peru, as well as the ancient sites of Cusco and Machu Picchu, both of which are UNESCO World Heritage Sites. You'll also enjoy a 5-night river cruise aboard the exclusively chartered, luxury Amazon boat, the Delfin III, as you sail along the Amazon rainforest.

Before you go:

Join Duke Alumni, families, and friends in this journey of a lifetime. While on your excursions, enjoy authentic experiences that introduce you to true Peruvian culture and its heritage. The breadth of their knowledge deepens your appreciation for the region.

During your cruise, meet townspeople in a village in the Andean mountains. Afterward, journey to Machu Picchu, the ancient Inca city nestled in the Andes Mountains, where you'll explore the awe-inspiring ruins of this once-forgotten city. You'll also have the opportunity to board the luxury Amazon boat, the Delfin III, for a 5-night river cruise, savoring the sounds along the rain forest. During your cruise, you'll experience the indigenous people of the Amazon, who will share their stories and guide you through their way of life.

While on your excursion, enjoy authentic experiences that introduce you to the Peruvian landscape. Whether you're exploring the Amazon rainforest or the historic city of Lima, you'll gain a deeper understanding of the region's culture and history.

After you return:

Duke Alumni Association

An experience like this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity that you won't want to miss. Whether you're a first-time traveler or a seasoned adventurer, Peru is the perfect destination to explore and discover the wonders of this fascinating country.

Wander among the timeworn ruins of the sacred Incan cities. Discover the incalculable legacy of the Inca Empire, built with massive stones since the days of their capital, Cusco. Uncover the secrets of the Inca civilization, which flourished over a period of 400 years, from the 12th to the 16th centuries.

The ancient Inca Empire stretched across a vast expanse of terrain, from the Andes to the Amazon, and from the Pacific Ocean to the sea of clouds. Today, the Inca Empire is celebrated for its magnificent architecture, exquisite goldwork, and advanced agricultural techniques.

The Inca Empire was known for its finely tuned system of roads, which facilitated communication and transportation throughout the kingdom. These roads extended for thousands of miles and connected all parts of the empire, allowing the Inca to maintain control over a vast territory.

The Inca Empire was also known for its impressive architecture, which can still be seen today. The most famous example of Inca architecture is Machu Picchu, a city built high in the Andes. The city was hidden for centuries until it was rediscovered in the early 20th century.

Upon arrival in Cusco, take a panoramic drive to the historic center of the city. This vibrant city is the gateway to the Amazon, accessible only by air, and is the starting point for your Amazon adventure.

Today, the city is a vibrant blend of modern and traditional cultures. It is home to many museums and galleries, which showcase the diverse range of artistic expression in the region.

The city is served by the country’s largest airport, and international flights arrive at Cusco daily.

Day 2

Lima has a colonial flavor, with its narrow streets, colorful markets, and historical buildings. It is home to the Larco Museum, which houses one of the world’s finest collections of pre-Columbian art and artifacts.

The museum is housed in a colonial mansion and features a wide range of artifacts, including goldwork, pottery, and textiles from the pre-Columbian era. It is a must-see for anyone interested in learning about the region’s rich cultural heritage.

contemporary culture. The biodiversity of the rain forest, the ancient Incas and a rich heritage meet in colonial towns nestled between mountainous peaks and highlands, and in colonial cities as you celebrate the natural beauty of the Amazon.

This high-caliber professional makes you feel safe and important in your surroundings. Care you receive from your Travel Director and the knowledge you are given will allow you to immerse yourself comfortably in your surroundings.

It should weave together discovery, education and humanity, the rich wildlife in the rain forest, such as blue and yellow macaws, toucans, umbrella birds, capybaras and red howler monkeys, iguanas lazing in the sun, “laughing” falcons. Sharp eyes may spot squirrel monkeys, the fantastic flora and fauna. Marvel at grey and charcoal mantled howler monkeys, „laughing” falcons and more. Zoom in on exotic spiders, tree frogs, dragonflies, butterflies and tarantulas. You may perhaps even catch glimpses of the jaguar, ocelot, pumas and more. You may even be able to see the “sacred” tree frog, the name given to a species found only in the Andes. Most amazing of all is the ‘blue sky display’ of exuberant wildlife, a sight that will forever be a part of your memory.

Travelers looking for the finest accommodations in Peru and Ecuador will enjoy their journey aboard the Delfin III, which features 13 suites and 17 staterooms. The Delfin III offers a maximum of 26 guests on board, ensuring privacy and personal attention is given to each guest.
