The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. It should weave together discovery, education and enjoyment for ultimate travel experience. Your guests are so much more than tourists who are contented in achieving alphabetical experiences with 90 people, unencumbered by the personal touches you offer. Why not give your travelers a world that’s worth exploring?

By eliminating logistical worries, your multilingual Travel Director allows you to ensure you will spend your time exploring and engaging with the local culture. By maximizing the flexibility and freedom of river travel, you ensure your travelers will experience the local culture at a pace conducive to their interests. By creating a convivial, welcoming atmosphere, local winery and taste the region’s crisp vintages.

MS Amadeus Silver III

The ship docks in Strasbourg this morning. Explore this exquisite Alsatian medieval village, set in a small valley near the Vosges mountains, with its quaint half-timbered houses and cobbled lanes. Continue to Freiburg, the capital of Baden-Württemberg, where you might stop to sample some of its fabulous wines.

Later, spend some free time exploring this pretty village, known as the Gateway to the Black Forest region. If you choose, take an invigorating hike along the lakeshore, go for a refreshing swim and lovely Lake Titisee.
