Discovery

AHI Connects: Olive Farm Visit.

Visit an award-winning, family-owned olive farm for lunch. Enjoy a tasting, learn about the production of the oil and visit with the family.

AHI Connects: Sicilian Pizza.

Enhance your culinary skills during a private pizza-making lesson, then enjoy a delicious lunch.

Monreale and Palermo. Visit Monreale's Santa Maria la Nuova, a cathedral with splendid mosaics, and admire views of the Conca d'Oro. Experience Palermo's lively market, and visit the cathedral, a blend of Gothic, Moorish and Norman architecture. Visit the Palatine Chapel in the Norman Palace; witness the Arab-Norman domes of Saint John of the Hermits; and see Italy's largest theater.

Erice and Segesta. In Erice, see two medieval castles and walls that date from the Phoenician era, and marvel at Romanesque architecture of the Norman Duomo. In ancient Segesta, see a spectacular Doric temple and a theater carved into the side of Mount Barbaio.

Agrigento and the Valley of the Temples. Agrigento, founded in the sixth century B.C., features an impressive collection of ruins. Visit Agrigento's Valley of the Temples, and see the Temple of Hercules, the Temple of Concord and the Temple of Jupiter.

Sicily's Mosaics. Visit Piazza Armerina and the Villa Romana del Casale. See a display of mosaics that depicts everything from scenes of daily life to flowers and plants. This visual delight is one of the best examples of Roman mosaics remaining in the world!

Caltagirone. One of eight late baroque towns in the Val di Noto, Caltagirone is known for its hand-painted majolica ceramics. At the Church of Santa Maria de Monte, see the 142-step staircase with a unique painted ceramic riser between each step.

Taormina. Explore Taormina atop Monte Tauro, and visit an ancient Greek theater with awe-inspiring coastal vistas.

Syracuse. Visit the Archaeological Park in historic Syracuse, home to the Teatro Greco, a well-preserved ancient theater. Wind through the charming lanes of Syracuse's Old Town, take in the tranquility of the elegant Piazza del Duomo, and enter the Duomo, built on the site of the Temple of Athena.

Enrichment

Mafia — Past and Present. In Sicily, the Mafia is known as Cosa Nostra. Examine the legacy of the Cosa Nostra and its effect on Sicilian society.

Sicilian Agriculture. During a tractor ride, learn about the operations of a local farm, including what types of produce and animals it raises.

Elective Experiences

Elective Experiences We have designed an optional activity to allow you to craft your individual trip.

Mount Etna and Sicily's Lemons.

Get an up-close encounter with Europe's largest active volcano. Begin your journey with an ascent along the lower slopes of the volcano to the Silvestri craters. Watch as the scenery changes from orchids, woods and vineyards, and learn about the history of Mount Etna. Then travel to a local lemon farm, and gain insight into this special industry, including how to grow the key ingredient of limoncello, the tasty Italian liqueur. Enjoy meeting the owners of the farm and relax during lunch on the property.

Elective experiences available at an additional cost.
