Dear Duke Alumni and Friends,

We invite you to join us on an exciting trip to southern Africa, where we’ll experience the natural wonders of this special region, as well as the vibrant cities of Cape Town, South Africa.

Experience nature’s beauty firsthand and marvel at the wildlife in the world’s largest national park, Kruger. Explore the cultural heritage of Africa as we visit Soweto and Robben Island. Experience luxury train travel at its best on the Rovos Rail, which will take us through the scenic landscapes.

Then it’s on to Namibia, where we will board the luxurious S.S. Legacy of the Seas for a 7-night cruise through the Chobe National Park. The ship offers comfortable accommodations and personalized service. The Chobe River is one of the most-visited waters in Africa and offers excellent wildlife viewing opportunities.

For those interested in additional activities, we have included a Safari tour of the Thornybush Nature Reserve, which offers unique access to local sites. Whether you’re interested in wildlife or culture, this trip has something for everyone.

Please review the trip itinerary and complete the attached reservation form. Payments are due by December 15, 2018.

A World Apart

A World Apart is an insider perspective and commentary. It allows you to immerse yourself comfortably in your surroundings. It should weave together discovery, education and humanity, the best elements of any compelling tale. Your personal travel story would be complete without a safari in its greatest native habitat while on a three-night journey aboard the Rovos Rail. With these specialists at your side, become intimately engaged with local people.

Inspirating Moments

The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. It requires character and substance. It needs vision and perspective. It should offer you an experience that you will never forget. The other important characters in this story are the guides, lecturers and safari rangers whose regional expertise shines in their care you receive from your Travel Director and the knowledge you gain from expert guides and lecturers, who call this area home.

Meet the young people on whose shoulders Nelson Mandela and other political dissidents once stood. Nicknamed the "Barefoot Bandits," they will show you how to turn your back on your troubles and have fun. They provide a unique vantage point to the drama of their day-to-day struggle for survival.

Victoria Falls

“Discovered” in 1855 by Dr. David Livingstone and described as “the most stupendous sight in the world,” Victoria Falls is one of the world’s greatest natural wonders. At its widest point, it is 1,708 feet wide and drops 355 feet over the Zambezi River.

Until the 19th century, the Zambezi River’s mouth emptied into the Indian Ocean. Today, it is channeled into a series of waterfalls, some of which are over 1,000 feet high.

The river’s power is incredible. In a single hour, 440,000 cubic feet of water thunder over the falls, and 1,000,000 cubic feet per second are sent over the falls per minute.

The falls are surrounded by a dense tropical forest.

South Africa

The indigenous Khoisan peoples have called this region home for 100,000 years. By the 17th century, the Dutch East India Company had established trade routes along the coast of southern Africa. Their settlements contributed to the culture of the Cape.

Today, South Africa is a vibrant mix of cultures and traditions. It is a land of contrasts, with its beautiful natural landscapes and diverse communities.

South Africa is home to a variety of wildlife, from the majestic lions and elephants to the elusive cheetahs and leopards. It is also home to a rich cultural heritage, with its diverse languages and traditions.

On this luxury safari, discover the landscapes of South Africa, home to a plethora of exotic animals. In addition to the Big Five—lion, elephant, leopard, Cape buffalo and rhinoceros—there are many other species to see, such as giraffes, zebras, hyenas, and countless birds.

Zimbabwe

Located in southern Africa, Zimbabwe is famous for its rich cultural and historical heritage, as well as its stunning natural landscapes.

There are many activities to enjoy during your stay in Zimbabwe, such as visiting Victoria Falls, the world’s largest waterfall, and exploring the ancient ruins of Great Zimbabwe.

This private game reserve is home to the Big Five—lion, elephant, leopard, Cape buffalo and rhinoceros—and many other majestic animals. This is a true wildlife experience. The hide’s waterhole serves a variety of animals, including elephants, giraffes, zebras, and hippos.

This area was a favorite of Malcolm Campbell, who set the world speed record here in 1929.

The indigenous Khoisan peoples have called this region home for 100,000 years. By the 17th century, the Dutch East India Company had established trade routes along the coast of southern Africa. Their settlements contributed to the culture of the Cape.

Today, South Africa is a vibrant mix of cultures and traditions. It is a land of contrasts, with its beautiful natural landscapes and diverse communities.

South Africa is home to a variety of wildlife, from the majestic lions and elephants to the elusive cheetahs and leopards. It is also home to a rich cultural heritage, with its diverse languages and traditions.

On this luxury safari, discover the landscapes of South Africa, home to a plethora of exotic animals. In addition to the Big Five—lion, elephant, leopard, Cape buffalo and rhinoceros—there are many other species to see, such as giraffes, zebras, hyenas, and countless birds.

Zimbabwe

Located in southern Africa, Zimbabwe is famous for its rich cultural and historical heritage, as well as its stunning natural landscapes.

There are many activities to enjoy during your stay in Zimbabwe, such as visiting Victoria Falls, the world’s largest waterfall, and exploring the ancient ruins of Great Zimbabwe.

This private game reserve is home to the Big Five—lion, elephant, leopard, Cape buffalo and rhinoceros—and many other majestic animals. This is a true wildlife experience. The hide’s waterhole serves a variety of animals, including elephants, giraffes, zebras, and hippos.

This area was a favorite of Malcolm Campbell, who set the world speed record here in 1929.
