Duke TRAVELS

Dear Duke Travelers:

Join us on a spectacular journey through Vietnam and Cambodia, where centuries-old cultures flourish harmoniously in jungle landscapes and Asian and European traditions coalesce amid cinematic streetscapes and sublime UNESCO-inscribed temples. This exclusive land and cruise expedition encompasses the breadth of Vietnamese culture and the magnificent religious, imperial, and artistic traditions of Cambodia—featuring a roster of renowned guest speakers who bring these stories to life.

Cruise for seven nights aboard the exclusively chartered, state-of-the-art, five-star LE LAPÉROUSE. Featuring only 92 suites and staterooms, each with a private balcony, this elegant small ship cruises into small ports inaccessible to larger vessels. You will also enjoy a total of five nights in five-star hotels in Vietnam and Cambodia.

This unique program reunites two historic figures from the Vietnam War in 1972—Phan Thi Kim Phuc, who was famously photographed fleeing a napalm strike at the age of 9, and Huỳnh Công Út (known professionally as Nick Ut), the Vietnamese-American photographer who captured that Pulitzer Prize-winning image. Immediately after making the photo, he rushed her to a hospital, which saved her life, resulting in a lifelong friendship. They return to the site of that photograph for the first time in 50 years on our tour, where they will be joined by award-winning journalist Jim Laurie and photographer Mark Edward Harris, who will lead an onboard workshop.

This unique program features four UNESCO World Heritage sites—beautiful Ha Long Bay, ancient Hoi An, the dignified Forbidden Purple City in Hue and the vaunted temples of Angkor. Experience Hanoi, Vietnam's culturally rich capital showcasing an amalgam of Asian and French heritage, and sail in a traditional Vietnamese junk past the limestone karst pillars and forested islands of majestic Ha Long Bay. Explore the juxtaposition of traditional and contemporary architecture in historic, French colonial Saigon.

Call (919) 684-2988 to make your reservation now, or to hold space in your preferred cabin category, while you decide.

Reserve by September 20, 2022, to receive $1,000 per person credit toward your total airfare price (home city round-trip to destination) when booked through Gohagan & Company air. (Discount can't be subtracted from the total price of the cruise.)*

The safety and security of our travelers remains our highest priority. Our staff engaged domestically and overseas and aboard cruise ships are committed to adhering to all health and safety protocols from the start of your trip to the end as directed by the United States CDC (Centers for Disease Control and Prevention), overseas local health protocols as mandated by the respective countries/destinations included in your travel program and in addition the health and safety protocols mandated by the cruise company with whom you will be cruising (if applicable). Protocol information tailored specifically to your travel program will be mailed to you along with additional pre-departure information.

Lauded for its sublime statuary and bas-reliefs, resplendent Angkor Wat remains a pilgrimage site for Buddhist monks.

Hanoi, Vietnam

The undeniable charm of this enigmatic capital city resides in its time-honored rituals and compelling fusion of Vietnamese, Chinese and French-colonial influences. Wide leafy boulevards, modeled after the Champs-Élysées in Paris, are lined with stately Neoclassical mansions and palaces. A red wooden bridge leads you to the Ngoc Son Pagoda, a jewel box on the mystical Hoan Kiem Lake. In Ba Dinh Square, the revered father of the nation lies in state in the granite Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum. Starkly juxtaposed against the Beaux Arts-style Presidential Palace and facing a pristine lake, Ho Chi Minh's modest two-room stilt house—where he lived from 1958 until his death in 1969—was built to reinforce the revolutionary leader's image as a “man of the people.”

BANGKOK Post-Program Option

Pass through the Hien Nhon Gate, one of the fortified entrances into Hue's Imperial Citadel.

Nearby, the 11th-century One Pillar Pagoda is one of Vietnam's most iconic temples, designed to resemble a lotus blossom.

Tour the Temple of Literature, a Confucian sanctuary and learning center since A.D. 1070 and a paradigm of traditional Vietnamese architecture. Visit the Hoa Lo Prison Museum, or "Hanoi Hilton," where American pilots, including the late Senator John McCain, were held as prisoners during the Vietnam War. In the 13th-century Old Quarter, stroll its 36 Streets, named after guilds formed in the Middle Ages by resident craftspeople.

Ha Long Bay

Board a traditional Vietnamese junk for a private cruise and experience the ethereal beauty of Ha Long Bay, the "Bay of the Descending Dragon." This UNESCO World Heritage site is characterized by a seascape of over 1,600 emerald green pinnacles that soar from the bay's tranquil waters. Cruise between limestone islands with wave-eroded caves and coves, and walk among the tapering stalactites and stalagmites in the natural grottoes of Thien Cung, the Heavenly Palace Cave.

Hue

The UNESCO World Heritage site of Hue, located on the banks of the Perfume River, was the Imperial City of the Nguyen kings from 1601 to 1945. Explore its Imperial Citadel and the massive ramparts and moat dating from the 18th and 19th centuries.

Tour the Imperial Enclosure of the emperor's residence, palaces, temples and state buildings and the Forbidden Purple City—a citadel within a citadel formerly reserved for the royalty of the Nguyen Dynasty. Visit the 17th-century Thien Mu (Heavenly Lady) Pagoda and the tomb of Emperor Tu Duc, built and designed by the emperor himself during the Nguyen dynasty.

Da Nang

Encircled by the Marble Mountains and clear-blue waters, coastal Da Nang is known for its exquisite Museum of Cham Sculpture, exhibiting the world's largest collection of indigenous Cham sandstone art and statues dating from the fifth to 15th centuries.

Roots cleave stones and lichen sprouts from delicately carved reliefs at the striking Angkor temple of Ta Prohm.

Hoi An

Prior to the 14th century, ancient Hoi An was the commercial capital of the Cham Empire and a strategic global port for the spice trade. This captivating UNESCO World Heritage site preserves more than 800 buildings from the 15th to 19th centuries that emanate a timeless, mystical aura. Learn about the city's heritage at the Hoi An Museum of History and Culture housed inside the 17th-century Quan Am Pagoda.

Visit the grand temple of Phuc Kien Assembly Hall, a masterpiece of Fujian artistry. Stroll the city's famed handicraft workshops and

FEATURED GUEST SPEAKERS

Phan Thi Kim Phuc, famously photographed fleeing a napalm strike (in the photo shown right) when she was 9 years old, will share more about her commitment to global peace.

Huỳnh Công Út, known professionally as Nick Ut, was the photographer who captured that historic image, and will speak about the experience.

Jim Laurie, an award-winning reporter and news correspondent, will talk about his days covering Vietnam and Cambodia for NBC News in 1972.

Mark Edward Harris, an award-winning travel photographer, will lead an onboard workshop with hands-on coaching to elevate your travel photography.

Experience Vietnam's kaleidoscopic markets, a vivid nexus of history, culture and commerce.

colorful riverside market and admire the graceful arc of the Lai Vien Keiu Bridge, originally built in 1590.

Saigon (Ho Chi Minh City)

Saigon remains a vibrant convergence of Vietnamese heritage and French panache. Women still don the traditional áo dài, a silk tunic worn over pantaloons. Here, see the neo-Romanesque-style Notre Dame Cathedral and the Saigon Opera House, a stunning counterpart to the Petit Palais in Paris, recalling the city's French-colonial history. Visit the European-style Central Post Office; the imposing Reunification Hall Palace, the former South Vietnamese presidential palace; and the War Remnants Museum, which offers a Vietnamese perspective on the Vietnam War. Explore the Ben Thanh Market, an authentic symbol of Saigon, where merchants offer aromatic spiced cuisine, traditional Chinese medicines and handcrafted wares and textiles.

Outside Saigon, explore the Cu Chi Tunnels, an underground complex and an engineering marvel built by the Viet Cong, stretching over 150 miles from Saigon to the Cambodian border.

Siem Reap, Cambodia, for Angkor

Angkor, a UNESCO World Heritage site, was once the capital of the Khmer Empire. Located in the lush jungles of northern Cambodia, today it is one of the world's most important archaeological sites.

Near Siem Reap, the Temple of Angkor Wat is the largest religious structure in the world, built in the 12th century by King Suryavarman II to honor the Hindu god Vishnu. Angkor Wat stands in testament to the centuries-long grandeur of the prosperous Khmer Empire.

Admire the ornate, Lai Vien Kieu Bridge, built to link Hoi An's Chinese and Japanese quarters.

View Saigon's stunning, Neoclassical Central Post Office, built by Cochinchina's chief architect, Marie-Alfred Foulhoux, in 1891.

The astounding Banteay Srei Citadel of the Women is considered the ultimate expression of Khmer genius. Constructed in the 10th century from rose-pink sandstone, the temple is believed to have been built by women based on the intricacy of the elaborate three-dimensional carvings and filigree relief work that adorn its peaked buildings.

On the banks of the Siem Reap River, the monumental walled city of Angkor Thom was the last capital of the Khmer Empire. The towers of its Bayon Temple have approximately 200 stone faces and bas-relief sculptures depicting historical scenes from everyday life of the Angkorian Khmer while interior artwork depicts scenes from Hindu mythology.

The area surrounding the complex includes the ruins of the 11th-century Baphuon "temple-mountain" and the intricately carved Terrace of the Elephants, Terrace of the Leper King and Royal Palace.

Nearby, fascinating Ta Prohm, a 12th-century Buddhist temple, remains largely untouched, leaving encroaching jungle fig, banyan and kapok trees to grow out of the ruins. Here, the dynamic life cycle between nature and humanity provides the basis for Ta Prohm's legendary "lost city" tales.

Visit a local workshop which provides training for thousands of Cambodians to perpetuate the creation of their traditional, cultural handcrafts.

The lotus is one of Buddhism's most sacred flowers, blooming from muddy waters each morning.
