Dear Duke Alumni and Friends:

Across the length and breadth of Scotland and Norway lies an unsurpassed richness of natural beauty and archaeological heritage left from the age of the Vikings. Explore this fascinating land where the centuries-old Gaelic language is still spoken in the Scottish Highlands and where enigmatic stone monuments and ancient settlements stand in testimony of Viking and Celtic clans amongst the natural beauty of misty isles, wild glens, lochs and moors. Experience Norway's stunning fjords and the remote gems of the North Atlantic on this journey to distant, idyllic islands along splendid coastlines.

Our specially designed itinerary follows the stepping stones of Nordic and Scottish civilizations during the best time of year, when the weather is mild and the days are long—a rare voyage accomplished only aboard a small ship cruising into smaller ports where larger vessels cannot venture. Cruise for seven nights aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star LE CHAMPLAIN, launching in 2018 and featuring only 92 Suites and Staterooms, each with private balcony, and the extraordinary Blue Eye, the world's first multisensory underwater observation lounge.

Cruise from dynamic Glasgow to charming Bergen, where rows of colorful, gabled houses on the historic Bryggen waterfront evoke the city's past as a center of Hanseatic League trade. Take one of the world's most scenic train rides along Norway's spectacular mountain landscape aboard the Flåm Railway. Sail into majestic fjords and admire the natural beauty of the Shetland Islands with their remarkable links to the distant past. Learn more about Viking history on the tradition-steeped Orkney Islands from the renowned archaeology expert, Nick Card, noted for his incredible commitment to researching the region. On this exceptional voyage, immerse yourself in the austere splendor of the Scottish Highlands in the hamlets of Glenfinnan and Glencoe, traverse the ancient shipping lanes of the Vikings and enjoy opportunities to visit up to five UNESCO World Heritage sites. As our Duke group grows in size, a Duke host will join the trip to bring a uniquely Duke perspective to the tour.

Director, Duke Alumni Travels

Special Guest Lecturer

Nick Card is a senior projects manager at Orkney Research Centre for Archaeology and the site director of the excavation at the Ness of Brodgar. He has worked widely throughout Britain since earning an M.A. with honors from Glasgow University and first engaged in archaeological excavation on Orkney as a student. Falling in love with the islands, he permanently moved there over 25 years ago. Since the inscription of the Heart of Neolithic Orkney as a UNESCO World Heritage site, Nick has been heavily involved in research and fieldwork relating to its monuments. He has also managed projects for the Orkney Archaeological Trust and the Orkney Research Centre for Archaeology, and he is an Honorary Research Fellow at the Archaeology Institute in the University of the Highlands and Islands.

Scottish Clans and Norwegian Vikings

During the enigmatic Viking Age, which prevailed almost 300 years between the eighth and 11th centuries, the Men of the North were cast as fierce barbarians who plundered their way across the known world. They came from Norway to settle in Scotland around A.D. 800—in Jarlshof on the Shetland Islands and in the Hebrides, where over 100 villages still are known by their originally settled Norse names, solidifying the enduring historic link between Norway's Vikings and Scotland's clans. Some of Scotland's best-known clans, the Clan Donald and Clan MacLeod, came from Norse ancestry, influencing the distinct dialects still spoken today on the Orkney and Shetland Islands. The nuance and rich history of these two complex and deeply intertwined cultures await your discovery across these remote, verdant and storied lands.
