ACCESSIBILITY

Duke has many resources for alumni with mobility challenges. We have an ADA bus available to transport individuals with mobility challenges from Reunions parking to Reunions Central (Bryan Center); there are staff with radios at the entrance of the parking deck, and all you'll need to do is let them know that you need the ADA bus (with wheelchair lift) in order to access transportation. Learn about wheelchair accessible routes and parking on campus

(http://access.duke.edu/getting_around/index.php). See information about accessible transportation (http://access.duke.edu/getting_around/durham_transportation.php) in the Durham area, and learn about local medical equipment purchase and rentals (http://access.duke.edu/assistive_technology/med equip.php).

EVENTS

Friday and Saturday Daytime Events: Please note that this year many of our daytime events (particularly tours and open houses) are being filled on a first-come, first-served basis. For our most popular event – the Lemur Center Open Houses – we have arranged to have shuttles leave from the tour bus stop (in front of Duke Chapel) every 15 minutes to accommodate tour goers. In other words, wait times for these first-come, first-served events may vary depending on the popularity of the event that you've added to your agenda.

Friday Night Kick-off for Classes of '73, '78, '83, '88, '93, '98, '03, '08, '13

7:00 – 9:00 p.m.: Start the night by joining your classmates at your Class Gathering Zone (listed below) for a casual, buffet-style dinner, featuring delectable local fare as well as plenty of beer, wine, and non-alcoholic beverages.

9:00 p.m. – midnight: At 9pm, Wilson Gym and Cameron Indoor Stadium become Reunion Party Central, as alumni from all classes come together in Cameron and/or Wilson to enjoy drinks, dancing, and desserts for an unforgettable first night of Reunions. (Class gathering areas for the 5th, 25th and 35th reunions will remain open until midnight with beer/wine, but from 9:00 to midnight, the music and desserts will be available in Cameron and Wilson only).

See Duke Maps to look-up the location of your class gathering zone.

NASHER

The Nasher Museum will offer any alumnus who is wearing a Duke Reunion Weekend PitPass free admission to the museum during regular business hours on Friday, Saturday, or Sunday.

10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., Friday and Saturday

Noon – 5:00 p.m., Sunday

Current exhibitions include:

Solidary and Solitary: The Pamela J. Joyner and Alfred J. Giuffrida Collection-

A major nationwide touring exhibition that offers a new perspective on the critical contribution artists of African descent have made to the evolution of abstract art from 1940s to the present.

John Akomfrah: Precarity-

A new multi-channel video installation by acclaimed British filmmaker John Akomfrah, 2017 winner of the UK's Artes Mundi Prize. This work is co-commissioned by the Nasher Museum and was featured at Prospect.4 New Orleans.

Courtside: Photographs by Bill Bamberger-

Vibrant color photographs capture basketball hoops from around the world. Artist Bill Bamberger is a Durham resident and instructor at Duke's Center for Documentary Studies and UNC-Chapel Hill. Duke students curated the exhibition through a Curatorial Practicum class as part of the new Undergraduate Concentration in Museum Theory & Practice. Within The Collection Galleries.

Additionally, the Nasher Museum Store carries a wide range of unique items for all ages. Don't miss the opportunity to explore the museum exhibits and make a stop at the gift shop for gifts you won't find anywhere else!

PARKING

Complimentary parking will be available in the new parking garage on the corner of Science Drive and Cameron Blvd for all registered Reunions Weekend guests. Enter via the Cameron Blvd. entrance and take our superb shuttle service to Reunions Central located in the Bryan Center. On Friday, overflow parking will also be available in the Gross Chem Lot.

\(back to top\)

RECREATION & EXERCISE

You're welcome to use the on-campus recreation centers – Wilson (<https://recreation.duke.edu/facilities/wilson-recreation-center>) (West Campus) and Brodie (<https://recreation.duke.edu/facilities/brodie-recreation-center>) (East Campus) – which offer weights, cardio machines, and more. Just show your PitPass to gain entrance!

\(back to top\)

REUNIONS REGISTRATION (LATE OR ON-SITE)

We highly encourage Reunions guests to register in advance, as there is limited on-site registration. We recommend registering at your earliest convenience, as online registration fees will increase on Wednesday, April 11, and online registration will close at 11:59pm on April 11. To register on-site, please go to the Reunions Info area (located in the Bryan Center) for assistance from a Reunions staff.

WIFI

Duke visitors will be able to access complimentary WiFi on campus using the network “DukeVisitor” or “DukeOpen.” These two networks are free to visitors and work in most locations on campus.

Instructions are below:

1. Open your network preferences and look for a network called "DukeOpen," which should be available to you across campus. Select this network.
2. Open a browser. You should see the "welcome" message pertaining to the visitor network.
3. Click Continue to connect to your normal start page.
4. Note that the network cuts you off automatically after an hour of inactivity.

If you have a Duke NetID and password, you can also connect to Duke’s WiFi via the “DukeBlue” network.
