An Exclusive Small Group Tour for Alumni and Friends of Duke University

Duke ALUMNI

Dear Duke Alumni and Friends,

Join us on a comprehensive small group tour of tranquil Tanzania. Your trip will encompass unparalleled game viewing, safari excursions, and other memorable adventures.

Your tour begins in Arusha, where you will enjoy an exciting afternoon game drive at Arusha National Park. Next, travel to Ngorongoro Conservation Area, wildlife haven and home of the semi-nomadic Maasai people, followed by a trip to the spectacular Ngorongoro Crater. After a stop at Olduvai Gorge, explore Serengeti National Park, where you'll see plains dwellers such as the lion, cheetah, zebra, and wildebeest, along with other plains animals and some 500 species of birds. Fly to tropical Zanzibar, and make your way through its city's narrow alleys lined with shops, homes, hidden courtyards, and intricately carved wooden doors. Shop for fresh exotic fruits and vegetables at its open air market, and tour a spice plantation. Fly to coastal Saadani National Park for a 3-night stay and enjoy game drives, river excursions, bird watching, and mountain biking. Your adventure concludes in Tanzania's largest city, Dar es Salaam.

Space on this exclusive Duke departure is limited to 18 guests in total and will fill quickly. As the group grows in size, a Duke host will join the program to add a uniquely Duke perspective to the experience. Call today to reserve your place!

Forever Duke,

TANZANIA ADVENTURE

Serengeti to Zanzibar

15 days from $7,443 total price from New York

($6,895 air, land & safari inclusive plus $548 airline taxes and fees)

From the depths of Ngorongoro Crater to the Serengeti plains, exotic Zanzibar to coastal Saadani National Park, our small group encounters the breadth of peaceful Tanzania's riches: abundant – and incredible – wildlife, tropical shores, varied cultures, and valued traditions. A safari to be savored; an adventure unequalled.

Day 1: Depart U.S. for Arusha, Tanzania

Day 2: Arrive Arusha Upon arrival after midnight, we transfer directly to our hotel where our rooms are ready for early check in.

Day 3: Arusha At this morning's briefing we learn about the journey ahead then set out on an afternoon game drive in Arusha National Park, where we may spot leopard, zebra, giraffe – and in the distance, possibly, snow-capped Mt. Kilimanjaro. Inside the park we'll see Mt. Meru, Africa's fifth highest peak at almost 15,000 feet. Tonight: a welcome dinner. B,L,D

Day 4: Arusha/Ngorongoro We depart today for Ngorongoro Conservation Area, wildlife haven and homeland of the semi-nomadic Maasai people. We arrive in time for lunch at our safari lodge uniquely set on the rim of Ngorongoro Crater, blending in so much with the landscape as to be invisible from the crater floor. This afternoon we visit a local Maasai village, where we see their traditional pastoral lifestyle up close. B,L,D

Day 5: Ngorongoro Crater This morning we descend to the floor of magnificent Ngorongoro Crater, a UNESCO site and at 100 square miles the world's largest intact and perfectly formed volcanic caldera. The unique biosphere here has remained unchanged for eons; towering walls encircle the crater's floor which represents Africa in microcosm: grassland, swamps, lakes, forests, and some 25,000 mammals, including elephant, black rhinoceros, lion, hippo, and zebra. B,L,D

Day 6: Ngorongoro/Olduvai Gorge/Serengeti National Park En route today to the fabled Serengeti, we visit 31-mile Olduvai Gorge. It was here in 1959 that anthropologist Mary Leakey discovered the 1.8 million-year-old skull of Australopithecus boisei – and revolutionized the study of human evolution. Part of the Ngorongoro Conservation Area (which itself is part of the Serengeti region),

Cover photo: On Day 5 we visit Ngorongoro Crater, home to a high concentration of wildlife.

We have multiple opportunities to see big game up close while on safari.

Olduvai is considered the “cradle of humanity” and ranks as one of the world’s most important pre-historic sites. Then we continue on to Serengeti National Park, home to such plains dwellers as the lion, cheetah, zebra, and wildebeest. The Serengeti, the Maasai’s “endless plain,” is considered Africa’s finest park, and we begin to see why on this afternoon’s game drive. B,L,D

Day 7: Serengeti National Park In Tanzania’s northeast corner sits the vast Serengeti, 5,700 square miles (equal in size to Connecticut), one of the world’s last great wildlife refuges, and the Tanzanian portion of Kenya’s Masai Mara National Reserve. Twice a year (Jan–Feb and Jun–Oct), some 1.3 million wildebeest, 200,000 zebra, and 300,000 Thomson’s gazelle migrate to new grazing lands, sparking one of nature’s most spectacular sights and the world’s largest migration. But the Serengeti’s plains teem with animal life year-round, and this is the best place to see lion and cheetah up close. On today’s game drives, we have the chance to see some – or all – of Africa’s “Big Five,” along with other plains animals and some 500 species of birds. B,L,D

Day 8: Serengeti National Park Another day to savor the spectacles and satisfactions of safari life in the Serengeti. B,L,D

Day 9: Serengeti/Zanzibar We fly this morning to tropical Zanzibar, Tanzania’s semiautonomous Indian Ocean archipelago with a storied history. After checking in at our hotel, we set out to discover Stone Town, Zanzibar’s capital and East Africa’s only ancient town still functioning. A heady mix of Moorish, Middle Eastern, Indian, and African influences (though predominantly Muslim today), Stone Town boasts a labyrinth of narrow alleys lined with shops, homes, hidden courtyards, and extravagantly carved wooden doors, as we see on our afternoon tour. Highlights include the open air market, teeming with exotic fruits and vegetables; the 19th-century Cathedral on the site of a former slave market; the Old Fort, offering lovely views of town and the ocean; and “Tippu Tip House,” residence of a notorious slave trader. Dinner tonight is on our own. B,L

Traditional dhow sails off Zanzibar.

“NATURE’S GREAT MASTERPIECE, AN ELEPHANT...”

– JOHN DONNE

Day 10: Zanzibar A morning tour of a spice plantation reveals why Zanzibar is known as the “Spice Island” – its bounty of cloves, nutmeg, ginger, chilies, black pepper, vanilla, coriander, and cinnamon have found their way around the world for centuries. We return to our hotel in time for lunch on our own and an afternoon at leisure before meeting for dinner together tonight. B,D

Day 11: Zanzibar/Saadani Leaving Zanzibar today, we fly to Saadani and our deluxe lodge nestled on the southern bank of the Wami River. Adjacent to Saadani National Park on the shores of the Indian Ocean, Tanzania’s only coastal wildlife reserve, Saadani offers a unique safari experience. This afternoon we enjoy the first of the activities available to us throughout our stay, including game drives, river excursions, bird watching, and mountain biking. B,L,D

Day 12: Saadani We have a full day to join in Saadani’s activities, which enable us to see wildlife up close – and with little chance of encountering other safari-goers. In and around the lodge and national park, wildlife includes lion, leopard, buffalo, antelope, giraffe, elephant, and zebra. Closer to the river, we may see hippo and crocodile. We also have the opportunity to spot a diverse array of birdlife. B,L,D

Day 13: Saadani Another day to appreciate our unique wildlife-viewing opportunities at this alluring outpost. Tonight we celebrate our Tanzania adventure at a farewell dinner. B,L,D

Day 14: Saadani/Dar es Salaam We travel over land this morning to Dar es Salaam, Tanzania’s largest city. Dinner tonight is at our hotel. B,D

Day 15: Depart for U.S. Early this morning we transfer to the airport for our flight to the U.S.

Responsibility:

The liability of the Duke Alumni Association, as sponsor, and Odysseys Unlimited Inc., as tour operator, is strictly limited. Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. purchases transportation, hotel accommodations, restaurant and other services from independent suppliers not under our control. We serve only as agents for these suppliers in securing tour arrangements, and therefore will not accept responsibility for wrongful, negligent, or arbitrary acts or omissions of these independent contractors, their employees, agents, servants or representatives. The Duke Alumni Association and Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. are not liable for injury, damage, loss, accident, or delay that may be caused by events not within our control, including without limitation, acts of terrorism, war, strikes, the defect of any vehicle, or the negligence or default of any third party. All coupons, receipts, and tickets issued are subject to the terms and conditions specified by the air carriers, cruise line, and other independent suppliers. We will make every effort to operate our tours as planned, but we reserve the right to make itinerary changes as necessary. If unforeseen circumstances require us to change a hotel, we will select alternative accommodations of the same or better quality.

Health and Medical Issues:

We request that you be in good health to participate in an Odysseys Unlimited tour. There is a reasonable amount of walking, and you must be able to get on and off motorcoaches on your own. We regret that we cannot offer individual assistance; in such cases you must be accompanied by a companion who will assist you. Please note that our itineraries cannot accommodate wheelchairs. We reserve the right to remove anyone whose physical or mental condition, in our opinion, compromises the operation of the tour or detracts from the enjoyment or safety of the other passengers. In that event, Odysseys Unlimited and the Duke Alumni Association assume no financial responsibility for any unused portion of the tour.

Air Transportation – Important Information:

Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. includes in its tour price round trip economy air from designated gateway cities as shown and contracts with those airlines they feel provide the level of service, routings, and value necessary for your entire trip. While another airline may offer a more direct connection, it may be at a price unavailable at the lower group rates. You will receive your preliminary air schedule approximately 2½ months prior to departure. Please note that seat assignments on your international flight are usually done at airport check-in. Odysseys Unlimited is unable to guarantee any seat assignments. Due to the nature of tour operator tickets, other restrictions apply, including but not limited to, frequent flyer mileage accrual, stopovers, alternate travel dates, upgrades, and airline taxes and departure fees. If you prefer to make your own travel arrangements, Land Only is available on most tours. Since international and domestic air schedules are subject to change at any time, we request that if you choose to make your own airline reservations, you do not purchase non-refundable tickets or those with high penalties for changes. If you choose to make your own air arrangements, Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. shall not have any liability for any loss resulting from cancellation of this tour or changes in this tour.
